PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello New Beginnings Members

What can we say about March?

The first three days were once considered bad luck, they were called the blind days.

It is our third month and the beginning of Spring. (In like a lion and out like a lamb.)

It is the month of daylight savings time on the second Sunday in March.

It is our month for the Irish with corned beef, cabbage, leprechauns, and four leaf clover.

There are other tasty favorites like peanut butter and banana pie.

and don't forget March Madness with basketball enthusiasts cheering on their favorite teams.

March is also the beginning of the Iditarod races, Peace Corp week, fix a leak week and many more.

I hope everyone enjoys this upcoming month, being Irish for a day and hopefully better weather.

Sincerely,

Leslie Pearce, President
